

RESERVE REMUNERATION REVIEW OUTCOMES

After considering evidence and submissions from the Australian Defence Force and the Commonwealth, and as supported by the Armed Forces Federation of Australia, the Defence Force Remuneration Tribunal has decided to approve the Reserve Remuneration proposal in regard to Reserve members' remuneration.

The submission included a Reserve Allowance of $10 per day for all ranks up to and including Major (and equivalent), a reduction in the discounted daily salary rate from 15% to 10% for Lieutenant Colonel (and equivalent) and above, and the removal of all salary discounts for Reservists that meet full Permanent Force competencies.

The date of effect for the changes will be on and from 1 September 2006.